On September 6, 2017 at approximately 7:11 PM members of the Nashua Police Department's Special Investigations Division arrested Cyrinus Frank Morris, age 48, of Nashua, New Hampshire, and charged him with First Degree Assault, Class A Felony; First Degree Assault – Domestic Violence, Class A Felony; Second Degree Assault, Class B Felony; and Second Degree Assault – Domestic Violence, Class B Felony.

On August 27, 2017 at approximately 7:30 PM, the Nashua Police Department responded to a Nashua residence for a report of an injured female. The female was transported to a Nashua hospital with serious injuries and then transferred to a Boston hospital for further treatment.

Detectives with the Special Investigations Division were notified of the incident and furthered the investigation. Through their investigation it was determined the female was the victim of an assault and she sustained life threatening injuries. Detectives confirmed the victim and Morris were in a domestic relationship and Morris was identified as the suspect. It was established that Morris pushed the victim and repeatedly kicked her about the head and body. Detectives applied for and were granted an arrest warrant for Morris for First Degree Assault, Class A Felony. Additional charges of First Degree Assault – Domestic Violence, Class A Felony; Second Degree Assault, Class B Felony and Second Degree Assault – Domestic Violence, Class B Felony were added. The victim remains hospitalized.

A Class A Felony is punishable by up to 15 years in State Prison, exclusive of fines. A Class B Felony is punishable by up to seven years in State Prison, exclusive of fines. Morris is being held on $100,000.00 cash bail pending his arraignment in Hillsborough County Superior Court – South on September 7, 2017.
