On Thursday February 20, 2020 the Nashua Police Department was made aware of a social media post that was circulating with Nashua students. Nashua Police Department officers investigated this incident and the investigation is still ongoing. There were no direct threats made to specific Nashua schools and at this time the threat does not appear credible. The Nashua Police Department takes all types of threats seriously and will be continuing their investigation. School will have a normal schedule for today. Anyone with further information is asked to please contact the Nashua Police Department.
