On January 3, 2012, members of the Nashua Police Department's Problem Oriented Policing Unit arrested Deborah Bryson, age 32 of 7 Pinebrook Road, Nashua, New Hampshire. Bryson is being charged with Receiving Stolen Property, Consolidation, a class A felony.

On November 9, 2011 at approximately 5:46 pm, Uniformed Patrol Officers responded to a south end residence for the report of a burglary. Upon arrival, the victim reported that someone had broken into their residence and stole multiple pieces of jewelry, valued in excess of one thousand five hundred dollars.

The investigation was furthered by Detectives in the Criminal Investigations Division Burglary Unit, who located property matching the victim's jewelry sold to local jewelry stores. The jewelry was positively identified by the victims as the jewelry stolen during the burglary at their residence. As a result, an arrest warrant was issued for Bryson, charging her with Receiving Stolen Property, Consolidation, Class A Felony.

A class A felony is punishable by up to 15 years imprisonment, exclusive of fines. Bryson is being held at the Nashua Police Department on $5,685 cash bail, pending arraignment in the Nashua District Court.
